I Hear from our Guests

Jeanne Meister

Partner, Future Workplace

I'm really impressed with Sarder TV and what I particularly like is how it has assembled a cross functional organization of experts targeting CEOs, CHROs, CMOs, and CIOs. That's incredibly important for the workplace of the future.

Kevin Oakes

CEO, Institute for Corporate Productivity (i4cp)

Sarder TV is great. It really aligns with the idea that you should constantly be learning. I think Sarder TV is doing exactly that — it's a great educational platform for organizations and a valuable way to learn from different people and different walks of life.

Sydney Savion

Chief of Education Strategy,
Dell EMC Education Services

I could definitely follow that thread. It's certainly thought leadership and learning worth spreading, and absolutely a channel worth watching.
